CITY ITEMS.

Miss Jessie May Randolph, of State street has recovered from a recent spell of sickness.

Mrs. Nellie Dunlap, formerly of Shankland street, now resides at 919 Warren street.

The indications are that the twentieth annual May Festival of Mount Olive Baptist Church, under the direction of Mr. William Young, will be a success in every sense of the word. It opens May 6, and lasts one week.

The revival meetings at St. Paul A. M. E. Church have been well attended. Religious enthusiasm continues to prevail and a number of converts is the result.

Mrs. Mary Crockett, well known in church circles, and who for many years resided on Cedar street, nearly opposite Mount Olive, now lives on Thirteenth avenue, North.

The Lithia Club of South Nashville met at the residence of Mrs. William Taylor, Friday night, April 26. After the regular routine of business the members were ushered to the dining room where a tempting menu was served. The next meeting will be held May 2, at the residence of Mrs. Amelia Cooks, 801 Seventh avenue, South.

Mrs. Missouri Bufford is home again after a few months' stay in Lynnville. Mrs. Bufford is one of Giles County's efficient teachers.

Dr. Wm. D. Chappelle is home after spending a fortnight in Georgia, visiting relatives.

Mr. W. D. Glover left Tuesday night for Chicago, where he will spend his vacation.

Prof. A. Julius Williams, the well-known playwright, left the city a few days ago for Sedalia, Mo., where he will spend the summer.

Mr. Lewis Winter, of Maury street, is able to be up and about, after a long illness.

The Allen Christian Endeavor League of St. Paul is doing good work.

Miss D. F. Elmore, an employee of the A. M. E. S. S. Union, was indisposed the first of the week.

Mrs. Nellie Powell is slowly convalescing.

It is rumored that Mr. Henry Scarlett and Miss Redmond, both of the class of '07, Meharry, were married last week. Mr. Scarlett is from Waycross, Ga., and Miss Redmond is from Jackson, Miss.

Dr. R. H. Boyd spent Wednesday night in Lebanon, Tenn., where he spoke before a large audience at the Mt. Zion Baptist Church, of which Rev. J. C. Lott is pastor. Dr. Boyd went down at the urgent invitation extended by these good people.

Misses Sadie Watkins and Katie A. Boyd spent Sunday with Miss Connie King, of 1616 Patterson street.

Mrs. Ada Lee King, of 513 Fourth avenue, South, was quite sick the first of the week.

Mrs. Ada Fleming Adams, of St. Louis, was in the city last week. She brought the remains of her father, Mr. George Fleming, to the city for burial.

Miss Willa McBroome, of Jefferson street, is rapidly improving in health.

The practice game of the National Baptist Publishing House Baseball Team at Eighth avenue and Harrison street last Saturday afternoon attracted quite a number of people to the field.

A stranger in town the other day was very much surprised when some one told him that the splendid rig which had just passed was from the livery stable of Boyd & Battle, the energetic young men whose place of business is at Tenth avenue and Cedar street.

Miss Bettie Ashley, of Hawkins street, who for four or five weeks was seriously ill with asthma, has recovered.

Mrs. Chas. H. Malone and little daughter, Charlie May, returned to the city last Sunday morning, after a week's visit to relatives in Whitebluff, Tenn.

The entertainment at the Howard Congregational Church, Tuesday night for the benefit of the Day Home, was a success. Prince Herrman officiated. Judging from the number present, the financial proceeds were enough to lend substantial assistance to this worthy cause.

Rev. J. C. Lott, of Lebanon, Tenn., spent several days in the city last week on matters pertaining to the interest of his church. Rev. Lott is building up a large congregation in that thriving town.

The Globe office has undergone a little renovation in the past week. The floors and counters have been beautifully painted. Two other additions are noted in the beautiful signs in gold on the two windows with a neat one between the two windows, representing the earth, showing that the Globe covers the globe.

Mrs. J. S. Martin, of Hynes Street, is a violinist of no mean ability. She has appeared very modestly before several audiences since being in the city.

Mrs. Dr. Jeff. Lytton left Friday evening for St. Louis to be with her son, Johnnie, who is to undergo a serious operation. Before returning she will visit her daughters in Chicago.

Miss Mary Wilson, of Blank Place, who has been confined to her room on account of illness for several days is able to be out again.

Mrs. Cassie Greer, of Waverly Place, has been ill for several days. Though suffering quite a deal and still confined to her room her condition is slightly improved over what it was the first of the week.

Miss Mammie Thompson has closed her school at Lake Providence after a successful year's work.

The North Nashville Xanthophan Club entertained on last Thursday at the residence of Miss Willie P. Washington, 909 Warren street. The decorations were pinks and ferns. Music and games were the features of the evening. The guests were served a beautiful four-course menu. Those present were Misses Maggie Williams, Maggie Pointer, Lillian Jordan, Rubie Burrus, — Cloud, Altha Stratton, Bessie Woodfork, Rosa Bell Bailly, Jennie Woodfork, Essie Williams, Willie P. Washington, Katie Polk, Mamie Boyd, Josie Andrews, Bessie Frierson, Ethel Frierson, Nettie Andrews, Messrs. George Jordan, Eral Jones, Andy Mayberry, Walter Morris, Herman Matthews, — Rucker, Jordan Plates, David Washington, Edward Polk, George Britton, Earnest Frierson, Isaac Williams and Herman Ellis.

The Sir Knights of Pythias made a grand showing at the First Baptist Church, East Nashville, last Sunday evening and an excellent sermon was preached by Rev. Mr. Luckett. The house was crowded and a large sum of money taken up.

Mrs. Darden, of Williams street, is sick.

The readers of the Globe are invited to attend the exercises at Walden University from May 1 to 9.

There will be a May festival at First Baptist Church, East Nashville, from May 6 to 11. Come.

Mrs. Eliza Erwin royally entertained the Marshal Neil Club last Monday. The query box was the principal feature of the evening. A large number was present and an interesting program was rendered, after which a three-course menu was served.

Miss Flagg, who has been sick, is better, but not able to be up.

Mrs. Radford, of Webster street, entertained with an elegant dinner in honor of Rev. G. W. Hamilton, of Clarksville, Tenn., last Wednesday.

It is rumored that some of the young ladies of the Commercial Class, of Walden University, are preparing to go to Oklahoma to take positions.

Mr. F. Snodgrass, of Algood, Tenn., was in the city this week.

Miss Susie Spence, of 1805 State street, has been slightly ill for the last week.

DELIGHTFUL PARTY.

Miss Bessie Epps entertained Thursday night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Anderson Barden at the home of Miss Jimmie Bridgewater on West End. The rooms were neatly arranged and beautifully decorated, the colors being white and green. The evening was pleasantly spent in playing games. At a late hour a two-course menu was served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Anderson Barden, Misses Ella L. Scott, Sarah Cooper, Jimmie Bridgewater, Bessie Epps, Fannie M. Graves, Messrs. James Brown, Walter Roberts, Archie Gordon, Major Baker and Laurence Grelam.

DELIGHTFUL GATHERING.

A most delightful evening was spent Wednesday, April 24, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thorne, on Tremont avenue. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Will Young and Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Eason. The favorite pets of the Thorne family, "Rastus," "Bulger" and "Kate," were also included in the merry party. During the evening several games of "pit" were enjoyed. Mrs. Young won the honor of being the highest scorer. Mr. Eason "cornered" for the first time in life, and Mr. Young won a reputation of being famous for holding "The Bull" and "The Bear." The happy party dispersed about 11:30 o'clock.

PROGRESSIVE CLUB C.

Quite recently an interesting meeting of Club C was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Robinson, of Seventh avenue, North, every member responding promptly to their duty. After a few hours of business transaction an hour of social chat was enjoyed. The guests of the evening were Mrs. Roberta Fowler Edmonson and Miss Jennie Snoddy, of Fayetteville, Tenn. Ices and fruits were served.

SACRED CONCERT.

Prof. Joseph E. Porter and Dr. A. M. Townsend will give a Sacred Concert at the Spruce Street Baptist Church, Sunday evening, May 12. They will be assisted by the Spruce Street choir, and other local talent. The program will open at 8 p. m. The music selected for the occasion will be the newest and most entertaining heard at a concert recently. Rev. T. J. Townsend, the pastor, will deliver an address, and other distinguished visitors will be present.
